Dear Mr Weisberg.

I have read your book "Whitewash" and it is very interesting I also have all the issues of Life magazine that came out after the death of President Kennedy. The other day I happen to be looking through these magazine and came across this paragraph in (Life magazine title John F. Kennedy Memorial Edition) which came to my interest here is the paragraph that came to my attention, "She (Mrs Kennedy) remembers the roses. "three times that day in Texas, they had been greeted with the bouquets of yellow roses of Texas. Only, in Dallas they had given her red roses. She remembers thinking, How funny - red roses for me; and then the car was full of blood and red roses."

It has been bothering me, Mr Weisberg, for sometime now, that the people who gave Mrs Kennedy the red roses knew that Mr Kennedy ~~that Mr Kennedy~~ was going to be killed.

They couldn't show their ~~impression~~ ignorance like they did when Adlai Stevenson was in Dallas, so they insulted Mr & Mrs Kennedy by presenting Her with red roses. Poor Mrs Kennedy did not ~~not~~ realize what the red roses signified at that moment, But Mrs Kennedy sort of sensed something as she said, "How funny — red roses for me."

Now Mr Weisberg you have questioned many people and spent many, many hours of your time to investigate this horrible Crime, I would suggest that you find and question the people who greeted Mr + Mrs Kennedy with red roses and ask them why they chose red roses to present to her at Love Field.

I may be wrong but just the same it is a question of thought.

I am sure if Mrs Kennedy would of looked real hard at these races it would of entered her mind what has intend mine. and before it was too late revealed to her husband her feeling.
After these three years of people writing books, magzins and articles to my knowledge it has never occured to them this fact concering the red races.

I thank you for letting me express my thoughts and ideas to you. I hope I have brought some interest into your mind.
I think the subject of the red races is the begining link to the murder of our Beloved President Kennedy.

For self satisfaction I would appreciate if you would write and let me know if this letter has been any help to you.

Thank you again Mr Weisberg and God Bless you.

Sincerely Yours

Mrs Antoinette Tregler.
